Bank Display Shows Variety Of Money

A display at the First National Bank of Antioch aptly emphasizes the big difference between the convenience of modern money methods and the "money" of former days.

The display contains samples of various articles that have been used for money in other days and other places. The collection is the property of Roy A. Miller of the Ham Coin & Supply Co. of Kenosha.

Today's credit card or checkbook slips neatly into a purse or pocket. How would you like to carry enough walrus tusks downtown to purchase Christmas presents?

Hippopotamus teeth were a medium of exchange in West Africa. Boar's teeth were favored in New Guinea, and elephant tusks in Ethiopia.

"Soul money" was used by the Gizza tribe in West Africa. Of hand wrought iron with a tail and wing, the soul presumably escaped if the "money" were broken. Then it had lost its value, which could only be restored by a medicine man, who, of course, charged for his services.

Trade beads, arrow money and knives were currently in various sections of Africa. Elephant tail money was in use until recently in East Africa and Ethiopia.

Dog's teeth were prized for money in Africa, too. On display is a circle of perfect dog teeth fastened on to native fiber reinforced with white shells.

Manila rings from the Belgian Congo were known as wife money—8 pieces buys a wife.

Jade of many varieties was a medium of exchange in China. Tiny stone "ghost heads" intricately hand-carved by skilled artists, were buried with wealthy people to pay their way to heaven. The ghost heads were finally outlawed as legal tender because of grave robbers.

The Japanese favored a money tree, with "leaves" made to be broken off and used as coins.

Agate money, small pieces of polished agate, were used in the Sudan. Bullet money, used in Siam and Laos, was small pieces of metal shaped like bullets.

Polynesian peoples had no money, and are probably unique in that respect. Because of the warm climate and the bounty of the land, there was no urge to store money or necessities. The natives gave generously of what they had to each other, never having known want.

These are only a few of the many varieties of money in the display at the First National Bank. Each item has an accompanying explanation, and you'll find it an interesting collection to peruse.

Ralph has been pursuing his hobby of underwater photography for three years. Both he and his wife, Jean, are scuba divers and members of the Century Divers, a local group of divers. The Gresens' operate Modern Living in Antioch.

"Jean doesn't do the photography bit," "The equipment's too heavy," she says. "You have to have a special housing on the camera. That makes it too bulky and heavy for me."

The pictures that Ralph will be displaying at the Shedd Aquarium are also entered in the contest of the local underwater photography show. They were taken in the Virgin Islands, where the water, the Gresens say, is "as clear as crystal."

Ralph has tried taking pictures in local lakes, but the water is full of floating bits of dirt and debris. Each bit of foreign matter makes a spot on the film, spoiling the picture.

Each picture entered in the contests must have a title. Ralph's are entitled "Still life," a picture of a clump of coral; "Show Me the Way to Go Home," a couple of fish threading their way through coral; "Smile, You're on Candid Camera," a study of a rather "silly-looking" fish and a picture of a sting ray.

The Shedd Aquarium display will consist of entries in the third annual underwater photography exhibition sponsored by the Illinois Council of Skin and Scuba Divers. They will be displayed in the main rotunda of the aquarium.

The photographs will be judged Saturday morning, and will remain on display in the Aquarium for an indefinite period.

William Braker, director of the Aquarium, pointed out that the exhibition will enhance the enjoyment of visits to the Aquarium by permitting visitors to see closeup pictorial views of the underwater world and many of its denizens and then to see living specimens of the aquatic life among the over 7500 on display in the exhibit tanks.

Eugene D. Shastal of Lake Villa is organizer of the event for the divers' council. He said upwards of 100 entries are expected. Jack M. Springer, Glenview; Robert Frank, Glenview; Fred Livingston, Jr., Northbrook and James R. Simmons, Chicago, are among those aiding Shastal in preparing the event.

In addition to the men already mentioned who will have pictures in the exhibit, the following outstanding underwater photographers are expected to compete: John Brandt, Ingleside; Vern Gardner, Waukegan; John F. Michel and Craig Alderton, Lake Villa; Robert Frank, Glenview; Philip S. English, Glen Ellyn; Don J. Linzy, Blue Island; Tom Stack, Morton Grove; Marcia Landgraf, Oak Lawn; Wayne Fredette, Tinley Park; Allen C. Perry, Grayslake; Logan LaChance, Evanston; Jim Hurin, Mt. Prospect; Orin W. Rice, James R. and Gweneth Lee, all of Chicago.

What's money? Well, in the Congo it's a knife, among other things. A display of articles that have been used for money in various parts of the world can be seen at the First National Bank of Antioch.

A hippopotamus tooth from West Africa and an elephant tusk from Ethiopia are among the items in the display at the First National Bank. All the articles in the picture have been used for money at some time.

Fog Stops Santa; He'll Be Here Sat.

Santa's arrival in Antioch by helicopter last Saturday was cancelled out by the fog that hung over the area, but he'll make another attempt this next Saturday, Dec. 3, to fulfill his promise of free helicopter rides for the lucky kids whose names were drawn.

Santa finally arrived by motor, when it became obvious that the fog would persist. Names of winners of the helicopter rides were drawn. If there is time for any more rides next Saturday, further names will be drawn.

New Record This Year?

Lake County is on the way to a new record in traffic fatalities this year. No one seems very concerned about it, except the Lake County Safety Commission.

The Safety Commission is pushing for an implied consent law in the next legislature, which makes a test for intoxication automatic if a person were involved in an accident. It's certain to be unpopular—after all, nearly everyone claims, "I can drive just as well when I'm drunk." Experts say you can't, and you'd better believe them.

If the law manages to pass the legislature, how well will it be enforced? Judging by the enforcement of other traffic laws in Lake County, not very well. There are many reports of persons involved in accidents, or arrested for violations, who are driving on a revoked license.

There isn't much doubt that strict enforcement of traffic laws would cut down accidents. And the only way the citizens of the county will get strict enforcement is to insist on it and be willing to pay for it.

Strict law enforcement doesn't mean just ticketing the reckless driver, the teenager that's drag racing. It means giving you a ticket when you're going 50 in a 45 MPH zone. Giving your wife a ticket when she doesn't notice a stop sign and fails to stop.

If you want strict enforcement, it means accepting a ticket when you've broken the law, even if you know you weren't endangering anyone's life. It means backing and supporting the police in their attempt to enforce the law, instead of looking for special favors for yourself. And seeing to it that the rest of the law-enforcement machinery does their bit, and that law-breakers aren't let off with a slap on the wrist.

The Safety Commission has done good work recently in spotlighting danger spots on highways, and in pointing out the failures of law enforcement. The people should support them. It's the only way you can go on the highways with any degree of safety.

Courthouse Notebook

BY LOU DURKIN

A new political regime takes over in Lake County Monday when a new Sheriff, new County Treasurer, County Clerk and two new judges are sworn into office.

It will really be a new deal in the Sheriff's office where Harold Scheskie overcame a long-standing tradition by defeating the office candidate and breaking up a dynasty that extends back more than a quarter of a century.

Normally such a victory would have meant an extensive change in office personnel, but deputies currently on the sheriff's list are now protected to some extent by the Sheriff's Merit Commission.

Scheskie, a long-time member of the department who flouted his boss, Charles Larson, will reveal his Chief Deputy's identity early next week and the only sure thing is that it won't be the incumbent, Norris Froelich.

The selection will be based more on politics than it might have been if the voters had approved a constitutional amendment which would have enabled the Sheriff to succeed himself.

Considered front runners for the appointment are Deputy Coroner William Wood—of Third Lake, whose boss, Coroner Pat Clavey, was a key man in Scheskie's victory, and Waukegan Police Captain John Brake who has resigned from the Waukegan department.

Brake has been hampered by a long-standing back ailment, but the Merit Commission would probably waive a physical examination if Sheriff Scheskie was adamant about the appointment.

Under the Merit Commission rules the incumbent sheriff, Larson, can remain on the department with the rank of Captain, but reportedly the new county budget provides for only one Captain's pay and this rank is already filled.

This could mean that Larson would be accorded all the privileges of the rank except pay.

There is less interest in the appointment as Chief Deputy to be made by County Treasurer Ray Sheahan, but there will be strong political overtones on this appointment as well because the Treasurer is also limited to one term.

Since Guy O. Lunn, who has been filling the post, has resigned from the treasurer's office, Sheahan will have a comparatively free hand.

Unless he promotes someone from the office, and this is unlikely, Sheahan is expected to name an outsider with the understanding that the Chief Deputy will be the candidate for the office four years hence.

A strong possibility for the post is William H. Smith, of Waukegan, currently Deputy Treasurer for the City of Waukegan.

Smith was active in Sheahan's campaign last spring when he won the Republican nomination for Treasurer from County Chairman Robert J. Milton and this, plus his experience in municipal finance, could make him a strong contender.

Changes in the County Clerk's office will be minimal since Truman Gerretsen moves up to replace the retiring Gar Leaf, who is moving to Colorado where the chances are that he will become active in GOP politics.

Judge Minard E. Hulse bows out after 20 years of outstanding service on the bench and two new judges, Lloyd Van Deusen of Wauke-

We live in changing times. Whether these changes are for the good depends on your point of view.

Speaking on the floor of the House recently, Congressman Howard Smith (D-Va.) said:

"I was distressed when I saw the President address a joint session of Congress and adopt the war cry of a Negro revolution—'We shall overcome! We shall overcome!' repeated time and time again, just when we were about to consider the civil rights bill."

"I was further distressed to see a statement by the Vice-President that if he lived in the ghettos of the cities, he would have the spirit to lead a revolt."

"Then we are exhorted daily to 'Do this or the Communists will get mad at you. Send millions of dollars to other countries or they'll get mad at you. Give away your substance. Forget the American people's needs and wants and the great tax burden that is upon them and give to this or give to that and give to the other.' Out of fear—a tribute, if you please, to other areas of the world in order to placate them, in order to try and buy their friendship."

"Now we come here with mobs in the street, with further mob violence threatened and NO WORD IS SPOKEN OF COURAGE TO DEFEND THE AMERICAN WAY OF GOVERNMENT."

"If this is the kind of spirit that has come to this country and we are going to operate the Congress on the theory of fear and on the theory of violence, on the gan and Harry Strouse, of Barrington, will take over.

Bench assignments will be given out by Chief Judge Glenn K. Seidenfeld soon, but Strouse is expected to take over the domestic and juvenile court where Judge Hulse held forth for many years.

It's more than likely there will be extensive changes in the governing unit of the county, the Lake County Board of Supervisors, next September.

There are reports that several members will be facing stiff opposition in the township elections in April.

Yes, times change. And the makeup of Congress may change. But people are pretty much the same as always. Time has little effect on the rules of human behavior. That's why legislation based on fear is so much like blackmail—the price keeps going up all the time.

It could be that the Administration's scare tactics have backfired and triggered a legislative backlash. Congress may have decided—when they defeated LBJ's bill—to show the White House and the voters how much they disapprove of shotgun marriages and other such gun-at-the-head kinds of pressure.

To the Editor:

"Figures," said Alice primly, "don't lie."

"True," agreed the White Rabbit, "but an expert ventriloquist can put strange words in their mouths."

Supervisor Welch's petulant complaint concerning the passage of the three tax ceilings approved by the voters November 8, may help to explain Lake County's financial condition.

The News-Sun report Nov. 18 reads, "Welch termed the passage of the three propositions 'almost a disaster' and pointed out that less than 8% of Lake County's estimated population of 360,000 voted for them."

Mr. Welch, a member of the Finance Committee of the Lake County Board of Supervisors for the last three years, uses neither the old nor the new math, but a particular brand of his own, "political math", and, as George Gobel would say, "That's the worst kind."

Instead of figuring percentages on the 132,222 registered voters of the County or the 90,000 plus who actually voted Nov. 8th, Mr. Welch talked about "the estimated 360,000 population of Lake County counting every man, woman and child—a voting body inflated 175%. Now, if County Budgets are compiled with the same "political math," it's small wonder "necessary county services" demand such exorbitant expenditures, is it?

"Less than 8% voted for the propositions," contended Mr. Welch, again using 360,000 (227,778, or almost 2/3 of whom could not vote) and even then he didn't have the correct answer to his simple first type percentage problem—360,000 times .08 equals 28,800. Actually over 35,000 out of 90,000, or almost 40% favored a tax ceiling on the corporate fund, and out of the 66,465 who voted on that ceiling, 35,517 or 53% said "Yes". Men have occupied the White House with a lesser percentage than that.

Mr. Welch uses his regressive "political math" to figure estimated county earnings perhaps, and his inflated "political math" to figure expenditures. No wonder he's in a tizzy.

Unbeaten Sequoits Win Woodstock Tourney

Antioch's Sequoits brought home the championship trophy from the Woodstock Invitational Tourney during the Thanksgiving holiday, defeating Carmel, then Warren for the championship. The tourney was followed their Wednesday night defeat of Salem Central and their win over McHenry the preceding Saturday night.

The Sequoits will start conference play against Lake Zurich Friday night, Dec. 2 in the Antioch High gym. Lake Zurich is a veteran team, with good height. If the Sequoits can improve their rebounding and score better from the free throw line, Coach Roger Andrews is hoping to continue his team's no-loss record.

ANTIOCH 53, SALEM 45
The Antioch Sequoits beat a hustling and determined Salem Central basketball team last Wednesday by a score of 53 to 45. Due to some fine defensive play, the Sequoits entered the locker room at the half with a 31-17 edge.

Because of inability to hit from the field, the Sequoits lost the battle of the second half, with Salem outscoring them 28-22. Antioch hit 16 baskets of 53 attempts for 28%, poor shooting. On the rebounds, Antioch had 38 to 32 for Salem.

Joel Strahan played a fine game for the Sequoits, coming through with some timely baskets. Coach Andrews commented, "The team's defense was O.K. but our poor shooting from the field needs to improve."

Coach Roger Andrews is guardedly optimistic about this year's basketball team. "With a lot of work, we could have the best team I've seen at Antioch," he says. Strong points of the team, says Andrews are the defense, a good fast break, desire and hustle and team play. The team needs work, says Andrews, on rebounding, free throw shooting, and a hard driving instinct.

Walls Chosen On All-State Team

Tyrone Walls, one of Antioch High's star athletes, finished his high school football career some weeks ago, but the honors he earned on the prep football field are still coming in.

Latest recognition of Ty's athletic abilities is his selection for the All-State football team by three newspapers—the Champaign News-Gazette, who selected 33 boys for their All-State team; the Rockford Register-Star, 44 boys named All-State, and the Chicago American, 44 boys chosen.

Ty will spend Saturday and Sunday (Dec. 3 and 4) in Champaign as guest of the News-Gazette, along with the other 32 boys chosen and their coaches. Coach Roy Nelson, who has guided Ty through three years of varsity play, will accompany Ty.

The All-Stars will attend the Butler-Indiana basketball

This fabulous Oatmeal Cake is the perfect snack for guests who drop in at holiday time.

Oatmeal Cake Is Fabulous Dessert

Oatmeal cake is a fabulous party or as a treat for late-evening snackers, says Peggy Symon, Northern Illinois Gas Company home economist. A highlight of this tasty cake is its crunchy, golden frosting of coconut and pecans. It's easy to make, too, says the N-I-Gas expert. Just bake it in the oven and brown it in the broiler.

OATMEAL CAKE

1 cup quick cooking oatmeal
1 1/4 cup boiling water
1/2 cup shortening
1 cup light brown sugar
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon cinnamon
1 teaspoon vanilla
1 cup white sugar
2 eggs
1 teaspoon soda

1 1/3 cups sifted flour
Directions: Add oatmeal to boiling water and stir. Set aside to cool. In the meantime, blend the remaining ingredients together in a large bowl. Add cooled oat mixture and mix well. Pour batter into a greased and floured pan (9"x9"x2") and bake at 350° F. for 40-45 minutes. Cool cake before frosting.

Broiled Frosting

1/3 cup thick cream
1 cup light brown sugar
3/4 stick butter or margarine
1 cup coconut
1 cup chopped pecans
Directions: Combine cream, brown sugar and butter in a saucepan. Cook ingredients on a medium flame or the temperature controlled gas burner set at 225° F. until boiling. Add coconut and pecans. Spread frosting on cooled cake and place under broiler for two minutes, until golden brown.

MOON CAKES

Ingredients:
1 lb. butter
1 1/2 cups sugar
4 eggs separated
1 1/2 cups cake flour
2 tsp. baking powder
1/4 cup milk
Pinch salt

1/2 tsp. lemon or almond extract

Cream sugar and butter. Add egg yolks. Sift flour, baking powder and salt together. Add dry ingredients and milk alternately, then extract. Beat egg whites until fluffy but not dry and fold into batter. Put in buttered and floured oblong pan and sprinkle top with mixture of 1/4 tsp. cinnamon, 1 cup sugar and 1/2 cup chopped nuts. Bake in 350 degree oven for about 20 minutes. Do not overbake. Cut in shape of crescent moon with cookie cutter or fruit juice glass.

CREAM ROLLS

4 cups all purpose flour
1 1/4 cups butter
Mix like pie crust.
Dissolve 1 tablespoon dry yeast in 1/2 cup sour cream, add 3 egg yolks, and add to above mixture.
Divide in six parts, roll in circles about 10 inches in diameter, cut each circle in 8 parts.

Filling: 3 egg whites beaten stiff, add 1 cup sugar and 1 teaspoon vanilla.
Place 1 teaspoon of this meringue on each triangle, sprinkle with nuts and roll up. Bake in 375 degree oven 15-20 minutes or until brown. Roll in powdered sugar.

Apricot Salad

2 pkgs. orange jello
2 cups hot water
2 cups apricot nectar
1 cup miniature marshmallows
1 cup pecans
Dissolve jello in hot water. Add marshmallows and stir for about 1 minute. Add nectar and nuts. Chill until firm, then add topping.

Topping

1/2 cup sugar
Dash of salt
2 tbsps. flour
1 well beaten egg
1 cup apricot nectar
Cook until thick. Cool. Whip 1 cup cream and fold in cooled mix. Spoon over jello mold.

You Can Start Your Own 4-H Club

"If you want to be a 4-H member and there is no club in your neighborhood—start your own," advise Lake County Farm and Home Advisers, Ray T. Nicholas and Helen Volk.

If you are between 9 and 19 years old, you can join 4-H regardless of where you live. There are only two things you must do to start a 4-H Club:

First, you must have five or more boys and girls who want to join. Many of your friends will want to join your new club.

Second, you must have an adult leader. Many 4-H leaders are parents of club members. Ask your parents or some of your friends' parents to help lead your new club.

When you start a new club, you get to choose a club name, elect your own officers and select the projects and activities you like. The advisers say you can have parties and tours, attend the 4-H show and learn more about the projects you select.

As a 4-H member, you can choose from more than 35 different projects. Popular projects are foods, clothing, electricity, photography, baby-sitting, automotive, livestock, crops, dog care, bicycling and bird study. Some others are gardening, entomology, handicraft, home grounds improvement, geology, small engines, tractor care, and wood working. There are many other projects in addition to these.

According to the advisers, camping, public speaking, recreation, music, judging and safety are some of the special activities your club can select.

Talk to your friends, find an adult leader and call your county farm or home adviser at Grayslake, Ill., Telephone: BA, 3-4844 or BA, 3-5844.

SAFEGUARD YOUR HEALTH

A PUBLIC SERVICE OF THE ILLINOIS STATE MEDICAL SOCIETY

MORE DEATHS RESULT FROM SUICIDE THAN AUTO ACCIDENTS

Every few minutes, someone in the United States attempts suicide. And every half hour, someone succeeds. In fact, last year, more people are reported to have died from suicide than from automobile accidents.

Just who is most likely to commit suicide?

Well, in Chicago, "The person most susceptible to death from suicide is white; male and around the age of 50," according to Dr. Thaddeus Kostrubala, associate in psychiatry, Northwestern University Medical School. In a recent issue of the Illinois Medical Journal, Dr. Kostrubala also points out that the victim is usually a successful businessman or professional and a respected member of the community.

Other studies show more suicides occur at the higher educational levels. In the armed forces, for example, the suicide rates tend to be higher for officers than for enlisted men.

Do people who talk about suicide ever attempt it?

They certainly do. In fact, eight out of 10 people who kill themselves give definite warnings of their intentions. Of course, many people make suicidal threats without carrying them out. However, such threats should always be taken seriously.

Are those who commit suicide really intent on dying?

Not really. According to Dr. Kostrubala, "the majority of people who kill themselves ask for help beforehand." Others give clues—some go so far as to arrange their own funerals or make sure their intentions are known, frequently in the form of notes.

Are people who commit suicide mentally ill?

Not always. Actually, few victims are psychotic. Many turn to suicide simply because they're convinced that life holds no meaning for them—that they're not needed or wanted. Others are inclined to give up rather than face what they consider unsurmountable difficulties, such as unpaid bills. A person who thinks he has a serious illness frequently commits suicide too.

Once a person attempts suicide, is he suicidal forever?

Fortunately, no. Most who try to kill themselves are suicidal only for a limited time. If they are fortunate to survive, they usually lead normal, useful lives. It's important to remember, however, that anyone who attempts suicide needs professional help for at least three months. During this time, a second attempt at self-destruction is most likely to occur.

1967 License Plates Ready

Balling of 1967 motor vehicle license plates began on Tuesday, November 15, and all plates representing re-assigned numbers will be in the mail by December 15. Secretary of State Paul Powell has announced.

Secretary Powell warned motorists receiving their plates early that the law prohibits displaying them on the vehicles before December 1. The license plate envelope carries a prominently displayed warning about that requirement of the law.

Also on December 1, over the counter sale of license plates will begin at five Secretary of State's office locations—the Centennial building and at Ninth St. and South Grand Avenue in Springfield and at the three Motor Vehicle Facilities in Chicago—and at 23 banks throughout Illinois.

The deadline for displaying 1967 plates will be no later than February 15; and possibly earlier, Mr. Powell said. As soon as the full effects of improved processing procedures on the steadily increasing number of applications can be completely determined, a definite decision on the display deadline will be made, he said.

Mr. Powell urged motorists applying for their plates by mail to do so without delay in order to be sure of having their plates in time for the deadline. License plates are fourth class mail, he pointed out, and there have been instances where as much as two weeks have elapsed between the time they were placed in the mail and the time they reached their destination.

PUMPKIN PIE

1 heaping cup pumpkin
1 cup sugar (or 1/2 cup honey)
2 beaten eggs
1/2 teaspoon ginger
pinch salt
1 1/2 cups warm milk or part cream
1 teaspoon cinnamon
Beat eggs and sugar, add other ingredients. Put in pastry lined shell. Bake in 450° oven 10 minutes, reduce heat to 300° for about 30 minutes. Top with whipped cream.

PASSING DISTANCE

Even seasoned drivers may not know all they should about careful passing, says the Chicago Motor Club. When you are going to pass, it is essential that you know how to judge the distance and the speed you'll need to get safely around the car ahead. For instance, to pass an auto doing 45 miles per hour, you should do 60 mph. And you'll need about one-quarter of a mile to make a safe passing maneuver. After you have passed the car ahead, guard against a tendency to slow down too quickly.

Share Xmas With GI In Viet Nam

The 300,000 U. S. Servicemen in South Vietnam are a long way from home and most will not get back for the holidays.

The American Red Cross says, local residents may share their Christmas with a GI or a group of soldiers in Vietnam. Omer Voss, volunteer chairman of Red Cross military service programs, says folks have been writing and phoning Red Cross to find out how to mail packages to lonely, strange GIs in Vietnam.

Voss says the Red Cross knows exactly what the fighting men over there would like for Christmas, and has a list of addresses of U. S. units in that country.

"Packages can be mailed to Red Cross personnel stationed with each unit," said Voss. "Our people will then see that the parcels are given away free, to as many troops as possible, during the holidays."

Voss said packages sent to strange GIs should be sent to a Red Cross Field Director assigned to a U.S. unit. Pick a fighting unit from the list below and fill out the four-line address.

A properly addressed package, for example, should have the words Field Director on the first line. The second line should have American Red Cross. The third line is for the name of the fighting unit and the APO number. The last line should read San Francisco, Calif.

Red Cross Field Directors are stationed with the following U. S. units in South Vietnam:

Fourth Corps, APO 96214, San Francisco, California.
6251 Tac Ftr Wing, APO 96227, San Francisco, Calif.
First Corps, APO 96337, San Francisco, California.
3rd Eng. Group, APO 96312, San Francisco, Calif.
Second Corps, APO 96295, San Francisco, California.
17th Brig., 101st ABN, APO 96347, San Francisco, California.
97th Eng. Group, APO 96238, San Francisco, Calif.
2nd Air Div., APO 96307, San Francisco, California.
2nd Ord. Bn., APO 96307, San Francisco, California.
First Cavalry, Air Mobile, APO 96490, San Francisco, California.
First Infantry Div., APO 96345, San Francisco, Calif.

What do the boys in Vietnam want for Christmas?

Red Cross investigated and found out the most prized items are gifts that help make day-to-day living more enjoyable. In great demand are liquid bug repellent, lighter flints, foot powder, cakes of shaving soap and shaving brushes, double edge razors and blades, good ballpoint pens and refills.

"The troops also want plastic soap dishes, sturdy pocket combs, small sewing kits, small plastic bags and all kinds of small puzzles and games that can be tucked inside a shirt or bag.

Less in demand, but still appreciated, are pre-sweetened powdered drinks and canned foods—such as cookies, sardines, oysters, hams and favorite fruits.

"Holiday fruit cakes and cookies are very popular and most welcome, but only if they're in cans or tins," advised Mr. Voss. "Folks wishing to send home-made cookies should wrap each cookie separately in tissue, and then pack the tightly into a sturdy can."

Caramels, soft candies and perishable foods should not be mailed, because of extremely high temperatures and humidity in the country.

Always welcome gifts are recorded voices of the family. (Red Cross has a free-recording service), pictures of the family and hometown papers.

Voss said gifts should not be mailed to Red Cross offices in this area, nor could his organization pay postage for anyone desiring to send gifts to Vietnam.

4-H's To Help Finance Building

Members of 4-H Clubs throughout Lake County, and their leaders, plan to raise several thousand dollars between now and December 19 by selling Polly Doodles to their neighbors and friends.

Polly Doodles are a chocolate, pecan, caramel candy. The reason for the fund-raising drive is the need to finance the new $50,000 4-H and Extension Building.

The need for the new building was brought about when the Secretary of Agriculture decreed that Cooperative Extension Service offices must not be located in Farm Bureau buildings.

Since the beginning of Farm Bureau and Extension work in Illinois, more than 50 years ago, the Extension offices have been located in Farm Bureau buildings.

While some counties have for financing Extension buildings, the 4-H club organization in Lake County decided they wanted to make this a "do-it-yourself" program. The 4-H leaders and members have faith that enough people will respond to their efforts to attempt to do something for themselves rather than rely on increased taxes.

The new 4-H and Extension Building will provide offices for the Farm and Home Advisers, assistant advisers, secretaries, work and storage areas, and a small meeting room.

Witnesses Schedule Circuit Assembly

Jehovah's Witnesses of the Antioch area will attend the coming circuit assembly Dec. 2 to 4 at Zion-Benton township high school, in Zion. Lester MacDiarmid, who coordinates the home Bible study service, said many Bible handbooks will be on display to help instruct and train Witnesses of all ages to function as missionaries.

David Mitchell, presiding minister of the Antioch congregation; Robert Willett, assistant minister and MacDiarmid make up the directing committee of the local congregation.

In addition to the emphasis on Bible preaching and the Bible study, the event will be marked by the showing of two movies entitled, "Heritage" and "God Cannot Lie". Sunday, Dec. 4, a talk entitled "Satisfying Mankind's Greatest Need" will be delivered by A. C. Manera, district supervisor in the mid-western states.

ADULT EDUCATION SURVEY

Antioch Community High School, in an attempt to serve the needs of the community, would like the community to indicate their interests to the school. To facilitate this, we have formulated a checklist of current and proposed courses, along with space to indicate an unlisted choice. These choices should be classes the individual would attend if they were offered. We would also appreciate an indication of how many would like to receive regular high school credit towards a diploma from any of these courses, which would necessitate 2 sessions per week for 15 weeks.

Township Government

—Who Started It, and Why?

(This is the second in a series of articles on the significance, structure and functions of township government. Here the early background of this form of government is explored, to find out why it began and how it expanded from early Colonial times to its development today in the State of Illinois.)

"Among nations, democracy has always been accounted the meanest and worst form of government."

Who said that? Would you believe it—that this statement came from a leader of early American Colonists?

It is attributed to one John Winthrop, first governor of the Massachusetts Bay Colony, who held this position in the early 1630's. Only a few years earlier, the famous Pilgrims had set foot on American shores, seeking freedom from oppression and autocracy which they had experienced in Europe.

Obviously, even in the beginnings of our country, there were those, such as Governor Winthrop, who advocated some governmental system other than democracy.

It is a simple fact that democracy has never come easy for the people who seek and deserve it. The struggle in the New World started in the early 1600's, and it continues today. It will go on tomorrow.

Under Colony Governor Winthrop, the autocratic concept he fostered did not win out. It did not because the populace of the colony rejected it. And, they replaced it by establishing what is known today as township government!

This truly is where a great innovation and a great institution of democracy began.

The first step in the process of breaking the autocratic hold of Governor Winthrop was to gain the right to elect the members of the colony's all-powerful General Court. The second step was to incorporate newly settled areas into township units, with their own elected officials. Actually, in the 1600's, these governmental units were called towns, instead of townships. An important part of the town government consisted of town meetings, where every individual had the right of free discussion on every public issue.

The search for individual rights has long been considered the primary reason why early settlers of America came to the New World. Yet, even with this resolve, these early settlers begot leaders who thought otherwise—who reasoned that "rule by the appointed few" is superior to rule by the elected representatives of the people.

What would happen today, if the process of the 1600's was reversed? First, township government would be abolished. Then, the right to elect local governmental officials is taken away.

Where are we then? The unfortunate answer is that we would simply return to an autocratic, leader-by-appointment type of non-democratic government.

We should learn from history, although it often is difficult to do so. But we do know that the concept of "rule by the appointed few" is still with us. It continues to represent a danger to democracy and to individual rights.

An important point bears repetition: The creation of township government halted a determined move toward autocratic government in the early 1600's. This form of local rule by the people played an immensely significant part in the development of democracy in America.

Township government stands today as a means of assuring the continuance of democracy in the state and in the nation.

Township government has meritoriously withstood the test of history since Colonial times. As the nation expanded westward, settlers continued to establish township government units. They set up township boundaries, then selected supervisors or "selectmen" to administer localized governmental affairs, from regulation of the town "commons" to overseeing health conditions to constructing new roads. Following the American Revolution, the Congress of the young country designated the land extending to the Mississippi River as the Northwest Territory. In 1787, an ordinance was passed providing a pattern of government for the expanding country, providing for territory governors, along with county and township governmental units.

Conditions were different, however, in the expansion of the South and the Southwest territories. Here, landowners controlled large plantations, sometimes even larger than the size of a township as constituted in the North. This was, in a sense, a baronial type of society, with landowners controlling the administration of the county as well as state governments. The county unit became the local governing body, usually with three commissioners serving as both administrative and legislative county officers.

During the early 1800's the great expansion of the western territories continued, moving heavily into areas which became the states of Ohio, Michigan and Indiana. In 1809, Illinois became a Territory, and in 1818 was brought into the Union as a State.

The early Illinois settlers came into the new state along the Ohio River route, and most of them had been accustomed to county-commission type local government. Consequently, the first Illinois Constitution provided only for state and county - commission governmental units, without townships.

During the 1830's and 40's, the northern part of Illinois grew rapidly. The settlers came from states where the civil township was a very important unit of local government. Thus, when the second Illinois Constitution was adopted in 1848, it gave counties an option to include townships as a part of the state governmental organization, within the counties electing to do so. This also provided that the elected township supervisors would become the governing commission of the county.

In a general election of 1849, a majority of Illinois counties chose the township system, and staffed these units with a supervisor, clerk, tax officer, justices of the peace and constables. Practically the entire northern half of the counties in Illinois established township governments. Eventually, this totaled 85 counties with township governmental bodies, and 17 with county commission systems. In 1893, Cook County, including the mushrooming city of Chicago, established a separate county board of commissioners, along with the 30 township governments within its county boundaries.

An interesting observation may be made in respect to the development of township government in Illinois. Those 17 counties which have retained the non-township system have apparently reflected the loss of the people's close interest and participation in their government. Four of these 18 have actually declined in population since 1870, nearly 100 years ago. Six others have remained about the same in population count. Inside the cluster of the commission type of counties in the southernmost part of the state stands Jackson County, a township type. Its county seat is also the seat of a growing cultural center, and the location of Southern Illinois University.

It is a proven fact that growth and progress among states of the United States, and counties within the State of Illinois have been most pronounced where local government—township government—is active.

Whether it be a nation, state, county or township, when the people feel themselves a part of their government, they will feel more strongly about their own progress, and the progress of their community. This is one of the true values of the democratic way of life, of which township government has played an important part. Why does Illinois need township government? What does it do? Who runs it, and what part do the people play in its operation? Answers to these questions will follow in the next article in this series.

More Pupils Use Bus Service

Ray Page, State Superintendent of Public Instruction reported recently that 520,449 pupils were transported daily to and from school by school transportation during the 1965-66 school year, and that 1189 school districts in the state will receive a total of $9,095,180.62 to help defray the cost of transportation of the pupils.

Supt. Page said the total cost of transportation was $26,807,593, and the estimated cost per pupil per year was $51.12. The state pays approximately $17 of this amount, or about one-third of the total cost.

The number of miles traveled during the 1965-66 school year were 68,586,338 with the average cost per mile estimated at 38.79 cents per mile. This was 5,456,796 miles more than was traveled during the previous school year—1964-65, when the average cost per mile was estimated at 39.85 cents per mile. The cost per student decreased from $53.76 per year (1964-65) to $51.12 or year during the 1965-66 school year, or a difference of $2.64 per pupil. The increase in the number of miles traveled accounted for most of the decrease in costs.

The 520,449 pupils daily transported during 1965-66 school year included pupils in kindergarten. This was the first year that school districts were reimbursed by the state for transportation of kindergarten pupils. Previously reimbursement was made to districts only for pupils in grades one through twelve.

Cranberries In A Xmas Cake

Consider the cranberry. Do you reserve it for holiday only as a sauce for meat? This year, do things differently. Discover how refreshing the cranberry can be in other foods like cookies, cakes and hot breads.

There's nothing quite like the tart, nippy flavor of the dark red cranberry. Small wonder it has played an important part in American cookery ever since the Pilgrims landed. The first settlers found Indians enjoying this small, pungent red berry along with their venison and wild turkey and soon adopted it as a relish for their meals.

As the years passed, the wild cranberry was cultivated and developed into today's plump, juicy variety. And now is the time to find out about its possibilities.

This holiday season, bake a cranberry studded cake that gives new dimension to the fruit cake idea. This one's not made with the usual multitude of spices and chopped candied fruits. Its flavor-makers are tart-sweet cranberries, tangy orange rind, chewy sweet dates and chopped walnuts. Buttermilk adds its wholesome goodness and makes the cake moist and tender.

Extra moistness is added by a special sugar and orange juice syrup you pour on after the cake comes out of the oven. The luscious liquid soaks right into the freshly baked cake, giving it a delightful tang. Then you refrigerate the cake to let the flavor blend for at least 12 hours.

Cranberry Orange Cake

- 1 cup cut-up dates
- 1 cup finely chopped walnuts
- 1 cup cranberries, halved
- ½ cup sifted regular all-purpose flour
- ½ cup butter
- 1 cup sugar
- 2 eggs
- 3 tablespoons grated orange rind
- 2 cups sifted regular all-purpose flour
- 1 teaspoon baking powder
- 1 teaspoon baking soda
- ¼ teaspoon salt
- 2/3 cup orange juice

In a bowl combine dates, walnuts and cranberries with ½ cup flour; set aside. In a mixing bowl cream butter; gradually add 1 cup sugar and beat until light and fluffy. Beat in eggs one at a time. Add orange juice.

Sift together 2 cups flour, baking powder, baking soda and salt; add to creamed mixture alternately with buttermilk, beginning and ending with dry ingredients. Fold in fruit-nut mixture. Turn into buttered 9-inch tube springform pan. Bake in preheated 350 degree oven 1 hour or until done. Cool on wire rack 15 minutes.

Meanwhile in a small saucepan heat 2/3 cup sugar and orange juice until sugar is dissolved.

Remove cake from pan; place top side up on a wire rack over a shallow pan. Pour orange juice mixture over cake, catching drippings and pouring back over cake, and refrigerate at least 12 hours before serving.

Business Teachers Brought Up-To-Date

Two teachers from Antioch Community High School attended the meeting of the Illinois Business Education Association held at the St. Nicholas Hotel in Springfield Nov. 18 and 19.

Dora Beattie and Richard Olsen are the ACHS teachers who attended the two-day session. Theme of the conference was "Meeting Tomorrow's Challenge Today." Each business educator who attended the conference was able to attend two section meetings which had "Meeting Tomorrow's Challenges in Today's Classrooms" as the central theme. Interest area meetings were also attended by the teachers and administrators.

Throughout the conference, outstanding commercial exhibits displayed the latest in teaching aids, office equipment, and supplies. New ideas in teaching business subjects were gained from the educational exhibits which included work from high schools in all areas of the state.

Did you ever notice that when a concern gets the 'Let 'er slide' attitude toward its work, customers begin to slide across the street to its competitor?

What'd you expect us to put our Overhead Cam Six in?

An ordinary car?

Our revolutionary 165-hp OHC 6 is so revolutionary we had to do something special with it. So we made it standard in all Tempests and LeMans. You see, it was inspired by those famous overhead cam engines in expensive European sports cars. With a few Pontiac refinements, of course. And with a power reserve for expressway passing you'd normally expect from a V-8.

We even offer a 215-hp version that makes a lot of big V-8s seem awfully extravagant. Which is why we say, with a six like this who needs an eight?

Incidentally, a four-way hazard warning flasher, backup lights, and GM's energy absorbing steering column are some of the safety features also standard in Tempests and LeMans. How can you resist seeing your Pontiac dealer today?

Our Team Will Fight

Sequoits Show All-Conference Skill

Sequoits Finish Half Game Out

Losing only to Lake Forest, the Antioch football team captured second place in the Northwest Suburban Conference.

The last game was played at Lake Zurich where our Sequoits were behind 14-0 at the end of the half. Finally in the fourth quarter after a long drive, Jerry Whitson went in for a touchdown. The point after was good and the score was 14-7. Another touchdown was scored by Ty Walls on a pass from Whitson and the score was 14-13. Late in the fourth quarter Ty Walls escaped and ran to about the 28 yard line of Lake Zurich. An over aggressive Lake Zurich substitute came off the bench and brought Wells down. After much confusion the refs gave Antioch the ball on the Lake Zurich 15 yard line, a 15 yard penalty against Lake Zurich. Walls finally went in for the TD. The point after was good and the score

20-14. This eventually was the final score.

Congratulations, team, one of the best seasons Antioch has seen.

"Dream Team" Selected

With the close of the 1966 Northwest Suburban Conference football season the annual dream team has been announced. Antioch is very well represented on the team with Ty Walls, fullback, Steve Lobrillo, guard and Don Zeman, quarterback chosen for the team. Honorable mentions were awarded to Sequoits Jerry Whitson, quarterback, Joe Pass, center, and Bill Sheldon, a back.

Our very best wishes to each of these boys who fought hard to bring second place laurels to A.C.H.S.

Pet shops are now selling dogs on easy terms.

Sophs Take Second

Congratulations to the Sequoit Sophomore team on finishing a successful season.

These boys took second place after having played several crucial, hard fought games. The last two games were won by a score of 7-6.

Boys who played on the team were: Jerry Martin, Steve Owens, Ralph Zanc, Chuck Hollecker, Bill Dow-Don Effinger, Jim Carlson, Terry Triplett, Fred Koch.

Sequoit Grapplers Meet Crown

Antioch's wrestling team will meet its first opponent, Irving Crown, tomorrow afternoon at 2:00 in the boys' gym. With many returning lettermen, Coach Bill Neuman is looking ahead to a championship and sending our wrestlers to the state tournaments. Why not come out tomorrow afternoon and discover just what these grapplers go through?

A Note of Thanks

Candy Meyer, president, and Mrs. Tulumello, sponsor of the local chapter of the Future Teachers of America wish to express their thanks to all the parents and guests that visited Antioch High last week, National Educational Week.

There were around thirty visitors divided over a period of four days. Student escorts from the Future Teachers of America volunteered their services to guide the visitors to various classes, and of course each enjoyed a relaxing lunch at school.

Once again we wish to thank the parents and guests that visited our school during National Education Week and help to add to its success.

Basketball Opener

Tomorrow night our fighting Sequoit basketball team will open its season against the McHenry Warriors on our own court. This year's team is looking forward to another winning season. The past two years have been great and the team is promising as good a year if not better in 1966-67. The team has entered the Woodstock Invitational Tournament on Nov. 25 and 26. Be sure and support our team tomorrow night and at the tournament next weekend. You won't regret it.

A.C.H.S. Band Wins Best-In-State Trophy

Wednesday, October 26, to play, Governor Kerner Governor Otto Kerner came to A.C.H.S. to present the concert band the Governor's Trophy, which they won this summer at the Illinois State Fair.

This summer, as every summer, the band and choir go down to Hudson, Illinois, for a week of camp. Toward the end of the week, on Friday, the two go to the state fair to compete in a contest.

This year at the fair, the band won the highest award possible: the Governor's Trophy, in which 44 bands and over 3,200 musicians competed. The winner is considered the best in the state.

Just before the band was to play, Governor Kerner happened by. He met Mr. Rush and heard their first selection. Later it was learned that the band had won the trophy.

Later this year in January, the band will be going to Peoria to the I.M.E.A., which is the Illinois Music Educator's Association. Only one high school is invited and it is a real honor to be so honored. This year, the band is also the 6th best in the United States and Canada.

When Governor Kerner came here, he made history, since he had never come to A.C.H.S. before. Also, there has never been a band as-

Don Zeman is a tall, friendly senior who is on the football, basketball, and track teams.

Don is president of the "A" Club, on the Senior Class Executive Board, and in National Honor Society. He plays quarterback and defensive safety on the football team. He can play any position in basketball and is a pole vaulter on the track team. Don said that he would like to go down for the state finals in track. He also said (though he might be prejudiced) that Antioch's coaching staff is the best around.

When asked for some interesting facts about himself, Don said, "I have blue eyes and I'm 6' 3". As tall people generally do, Don has long legs. This can create problems with the desks. He said most desks are okay, but some of them in the old building forces him to sit sideways. Don says that since the entire human race is getting bigger—bigger chairs and desks are required. His dislikes are freshmen who speak out of turn, spinach, and students that have nothing better to do with their time than make a bad name for themselves, their class, and most of all—their school. Don likes homework—if it can be done at school. His hobbies are cars, boating, and some girls. Don likes girls that are easy to get

The Student Council needs to be involved in a money-making project and though many interesting ideas have been discussed, there is nothing definite. If you have any productive, suitable ideas, talk to a Council member.

Our Team Will Fight.

Sequoits Show All-Conference Skill

Sequoits Finish Half Game Out

Losing only to Lake Forest, the Antioch football team captured second place in the Northwest Suburban Conference.

The last game was played at Lake Zurich where our Sequoits were behind 14-0 at the end of the half. Finally in the fourth quarter after a long drive, Jerry Whitson went in for a touchdown. The point after was good and the score was 14-7. Another touchdown was scored by Ty Walls on a pass from Whitson and the score was 14-13. Late in the fourth quarter Ty Walls escaped and ran to about the 28 yard line of Lake Zurich. An over aggressive Lake Zurich substitute came off the bench and brought Wells down. After much confusion the refs gave Antioch the ball on the Lake Zurich 15 yard line, a 15 yard penalty against Lake Zurich. Walls finally went in for the TD. The point after was good and the score

Game Out

20-14. This eventually was the final score. Congratulations, team, one of the best seasons Antioch has seen.

"Dream Team" Selected

With the close of the 1966 Northwest Suburban Conference football season the annual dream team has been announced. Antioch is very well represented on the team with Ty Walls, fullback, Steve Lobrillo, guard and Don Zeman, quarterback chosen for the team. Honorable mentions were awarded to Sequoits Jerry Whitson, quarterback, Joe Pass, center, and Bill Sheldon, a back.

Our very best wishes to each of these boys who fought hard to bring second place laurels to A.C.H.S.

Pet shops are now selling dogs on easy terms.

Sophs Take Second

Congratulations to the Sequoit Sophomore team on finishing a successful season. These boys took second place after having played several crucial, hard fought games. The last two games were won by a score of 7-6. Boys who played on the team were: Jerry Martin, Steve Owens, Ralph Zanck, Chuck Hollecker, Bill Dow-Don Effinger, Jim Carlson, Terry Triplett, Fred Koch,

Bob Sheldon, Dennis Pleviak, Willford Wells, Don Magers, Allen Elliot, Don Gaa, John Meyer, Tim Wells, Fred Zoll, Mike Tuminello, Tom Koenig, Mike Patterson and Jim Shore. Coaches Andy Hauptmann and Ken Merrill are quite proud of these boys. They will be a great asset to next year's varsity squad.

Sequoit Grapplers Meet Crown

Antioch's wrestling team will meet its first opponent, Irving Crown, tomorrow afternoon at 2:00 in the boys' gym. With many returning lettermen, Coach Bill Neuman is looking ahead to a championship and sending our wrestlers to the state tournaments. Why not come out tomorrow afternoon and discover just what these grapplers go through?

A Note of Thanks

Candy Meyer, president, and Mrs. Tulumello, sponsor, of the local chapter of the Future Teachers of America wish to express their thanks to all the parents and guests that visited Antioch High last week, National Educational Week.

There were around thirty visitors divided over a period of four days. Student escorts from the Future Teachers of America volunteered their services to guide the visitors to various classes, and of course each enjoyed a relaxing lunch at school.

Once again we wish to thank the parents and guests that visited our school during National Education Week and help to add to its success.

Basketball Opener

Tomorrow night our fighting Sequoit basketball team will open its season against the McHenry Warriors on our own court. This year's team is looking forward to another winning season. The past two years have been great and the team is promising as good a year if not better in 1966-67. The team has entered the Woodstock Invitational Tournament on Nov. 25 and 26. Be sure and support our team tomorrow night and at the tournament next weekend. You won't regret it.

To all you who read this article, let it be known that our band is really good, so let's have better attendance at the concerts... fine talent shouldn't be wasted.

As many of the students know, every year Student Council puts on a movie for the entire school. You get out of school for this and it only costs a quarter. A committee picked quite a few movies that could be available to them. The field was narrowed but the final movie hasn't been decided on because of the humorous as well as educational nature of some of these films.

The Student Council needs to be involved in a money-making project and though many interesting ideas have been discussed, there is nothing definite. If you have any productive, suitable ideas, talk to a Council member.

Our Team Will Fight

Sequoits Show All-Conference Skill

Sequoits Finish Half Game Out

Losing only to Lake Forest, the Antioch football team captured second place in the Northwest Suburban Conference.

The last game was played at Lake Zurich where our Sequoits were behind 14-0 at the end of the half. Finally in the fourth quarter after a long drive, Jerry Whitson went in for a touchdown. The point after was good and the score was 14-7. Another touchdown was scored by Ty Walls on a pass from Whitson and the score was 14-13. Late in the fourth quarter Ty Walls escaped and ran to about the 28 yard line of Lake Zurich. An over aggressive Lake Zurich substitute came off the bench and brought Wells down. After much confusion the refs gave Antioch the ball on the Lake Zurich 15 yard line, a 15 yard penalty against Lake Zurich. Walls finally went in for the TD. The point after was good and the score

20-14. This eventually was the final score.

Congratulations, team, one of the best seasons Antioch has seen.

"Dream Team" Selected

With the close of the 1966 Northwest Suburban Conference football season the annual dream team has been announced. Antioch is very well represented on the team with Ty Walls, fullback, Steve Lobrillo, guard and Don Zeman, quarterback chosen for the team. Honorable mentions were awarded to Sequoits Jerry Whitson, quarterback, Joe Pass, center, and Bill Sheldon, a back.

Our very best wishes to each of these boys who fought hard to bring second place laurels to A.C.H.S.

Pet shops are now selling dogs on easy terms.

Sophs Take Second

Congratulations to the Sequoit Sophomore team on finishing a successful season.

These boys took second place after having played several crucial, hard fought games. The last two games were won by a score of 7-6.

Boys who played on the team were: Jerry Martin, Steve Owens, Ralph Zanck, Chuck Hollecker, Bill Dow, Don Effing, Jim Carlson, Terry Triplett, Fred Koch.

Sequoit Grapplers Meet Crown

Antioch's wrestling team will meet its first opponent, Irving Crown, tomorrow afternoon at 2:00 in the boys' gym. With many returning lettermen, Coach Bill Neuman is looking ahead to a championship and sending our wrestlers to the state tournaments. Why not come out tomorrow afternoon and discover just what these grapplers go through?

A Note of Thanks

Candy Meyer, president, and Mrs. Tulumello, sponsor of the local chapter of the Future Teachers of America wish to express their thanks to all the parents and guests that visited Antioch High last week, National Educational Week.

There were around thirty visitors divided over a period of four days. Student escorts from the Future Teachers of America volunteered their services to guide the visitors to various classes, and of course each enjoyed a relaxing lunch at school.

Once again we wish to thank the parents and guests that visited our school during National Education Week and help to add to its success.

Basketball Opener

Tomorrow night our fighting Sequoit basketball team will open its season against the McHenry Warriors on our own court. This year's team is looking forward to another winning season. The past two years have been great and the team is promising as good a year if not better in 1966-67. The team has entered the Woodstock Invitational Tournament on Nov. 25 and 26. Be sure and support our team tomorrow night and at the tournament next weekend. You won't regret it.

Antioch's Band — Best in State

A.C.H.S. Band Wins Best-In-State Trophy

Wednesday, October 26, to play, Governor Kerner Governor Otto Kerner came to A.C.H.S. to present the concert band the Governor's Trophy, which they won this summer at the Illinois State Fair.

This summer, as every summer, the band and choir go down to Hudson, Illinois, for a week of camp. Toward the end of the week, on Friday, the two go to the state fair to compete in a contest.

This year at the fair, the band won the highest award possible: the Governor's Trophy, in which 44 bands and over 3,200 musicians competed.

The winner is considered the best in the state. Just before the band was happened by. He met Mr. Rush and heard their first selection. Later it was learned that the band had won the trophy. Later this year, in January, the band will be going to Peoria to the L.M.E.A., which is the Illinois Music Educator's Association. Only one high school is invited and it is a real honor to be so honored. This year, the band is also the 6th best in the United States and Canada.

When Governor Kerner came here, he made history, since he had never come to A.C.H.S. before. Also, there has never been a band as

Prominent Pre-Grad

Don Zeman

Don Zeman is a tall, friendly senior who is on the football, basketball, and track teams.

Don is president of the A.C. Club, on the Senior Class Executive Board, and in National Honor Society. He plays quarterback and defensive safety on the football team. He can play any position in basketball and is a pole vaulter on the track team. Don said that he would like to go down for the state finals in track. He also said (though he might be prejudiced) that Antioch's coaching staff is the best around.

When asked for some interesting facts about himself, Don said, "I have blue eyes and I'm 6' 3". As tall people generally do, Don has long legs. This can create problems with the desks. He said most desks are okay, but some of them in the old building forces him to sit sideways. Don says that since the entire human race is getting bigger—bigger chairs and desks are required. (Hint.)

His dislikes are freshmen who speak out of turn, spinach, and students that have nothing better to do with their time than make a bad name for themselves, their class, and most of all—their school. Don likes homework—if it can be done at school. His hobbies are cars, boating, and some girls. Don likes girls that are easy to get

Congratulations to the band for giving the school the honor and to Mr. Rush especially for such a fine job of teaching and directing. To all you who read this article, let it be known that our band is really good, so let's have better attendance at the concerts... fine talent shouldn't be wasted.

Student Council Plans

Student Council is always very active and generally has its thumb in many pies. The past few weeks have been no exception and it seems they have been especially busy.

The committee for the calendar of events was headed by Ralph Zanck. Hard work was put into this project and it's sure to be worthwhile.

The calendar itself is out now and should be posted in most rooms. Use it and don't get confused on the meetings of your clubs.

As many of the students know, every year Student Council puts on a movie for the entire school. You get along with and friendly. His pet peeves are teacher's pets and quitters.

To go on to college and to study aeronautical engineering are part of his plans. He would also like to major in physical education so he could be a coach later on. He has not decided on the college but says it will probably be a state university or a college on the east coast.

His advice to freshmen is: Try to participate in extra-curricular activities and keep out of trouble as much as you can because you're liable to get a reputation that will last all through high school.
